THE MEDIATION BILL, 2021	Line	Remarks
THE WEDIATION BILL, 2021	No.	Kemai Ks
An Act to promote, encourage and facilitate mediation	1 especially institutional mediation for resolution of	1 disputes commercial and otherwise, enforce domestic and international mediation settlement agreements, provide for a body for registration of mediators, to encourage community mediation and to make online mediation as an acceptable and cost effective process
and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto	2
Whereas the practice of mediation for resolving a wide	2 range of disputes has gained popularity worldwide over the last few decades amongst individuals, corporate users, governments, judiciary, lawyers etc.
And whereas it is accepted that the use of mediation	3 results in better resolution, fosters collaborative problem solving, reduces the burden on the courts, is cost and time effective, and preserves relationships amongst disputants
Whereas India has a long history of consensual dispute	4 resolution and has in recent years made rapid advances in the use of structured mediation, especially in the court annexed mediation schemes of the Supreme Court, High Courts and Subordinate courts.
Whereas the United Nations Commission on	PEOPLE
International Trade And Law (UNCITRAL) has adopted UNCITRAL model law on International Commercial Mediation and United Nations Convention on International Settlement Agreements resulting from Mediation, on 20 December 2018.
Whereas to strengthen the legal framework on	6 international dispute settlement, India on 7th August	U 2019 became one of the first signatories to the United Nations Convention on Enforcement of International Settlement Agreements resulting from Meditation, also known as "The Singapore Convention".	7
And whereas UNCITRAL has brought a Model Law for	7 giving effect to the Singapore Convention, it is considered expedient that India gives effect to the Singapore Convention by providing for provisions under a standalone mediation law for enforcement of international settlement agreements resulting from mediation. And whereas a robust and effective mediation system greatly enhances the ease of doing business in India thus improving the country's attractiveness as a destination for foreign investment and collaboration. And whereas there is a strong need for a comprehensive uniform legislation for mediation in India which will cover the multiple aspects of its practice, encourage mediation including community mediation, and provide the platform of mediation for settling a wide range of disputes including domestic and cross-border commercial disputes, matrimonial, and other personal disputes. And whereas it is also expedient to enact legislation to give mediation settlements the status of an order,	9 the country to which that party belongs; or certified as correct in such other manner as may be sufficient according to the law in force in India.

	(3) Subject to sub-section (1) and (2) above a party to 191	an international settlement agreement may —
	(a) apply to the High Court to record the agreement as an order of court for the purposes of invoking the agreement in any court proceedings in India involving a dispute concerning a matter that the party to the international settlement agreement claims was already resolved by the agreement, in order to prove that the matter has already been resolved; or
	(b) in any proceedings in the High Court,—	192
	(i) to which the party to the international settlement agreement is a party; and

SCHEDULE I	219
United Nations Convention on International Settlement Agreements Resulting from Mediation
(See Section 49)
Preamble
The Parties to this Convention,
Recognizing the value for international trade of mediation as a method for settling commercial disputes in which the parties in dispute request a third person or persons to assist them in their attempt to settle the dispute amicably, Noting that mediation is increasingly used in international and domestic commercial practice as an alternative to litigation,
Considering that the use of mediation results in significant benefits, such as reducing the instances where a dispute leads to the termination of a commercial relationship, facilitating the administration of international transactions by commercial parties and producing savings in the administration of justice by States,	PEOPLE
Convinced that the establishment of a framework for international settlement agreements resulting from mediation that is acceptable to States with different legal, social and economic systems would contribute to the development of harmonious international economic relations,
Have agreed as follows:
Article 1. Scope of application	220
1. This Convention applies to an agreement resulting from mediation and concluded in writing by parties to resolve a commercial dispute (—settlement article.

Article 15. Amendment	258
Ai ucie 13. Amenument	230
1. Any Party to the Convention may propose an 1 2 2
amendment to the present Convention by submitting it to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The Secretary-General shall thereupon communicate the proposed amendment to the Parties to the Convention with a request that they indicate whether they favour a conference of Parties to the Convention for the purpose of considering and voting upon the proposal. In the event that within four months from the date of such communication at least one third of the Parties to the Convention favour such a conference, the Secretary-General shall convene the conference under the auspices of the United Nations.

	250
2. The conference of Parties to the Convention shall	259 make every effort to achieve consensus on each amendment. If all efforts at consensus are exhausted and no consensus is reached, the amendment shall, as a last resort, require for its adoption a two-thirds majority vote of the Parties to the Convention present and voting at the conference.
 3. An adopted amendment shall be submitted by the	260 depositary to all the Parties to the Convention for ratification, acceptance or approval.
4. An adopted amendment shall enter into force six	261 months after the date of deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval. When an amendment enters into force, it shall be binding on those Parties to the Convention that have expressed consent to be bound by it.
	262
5. When a Party to the Convention ratifies, accepts	262 or approves an amendment following the deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval, the amendment shall enter into force in respect of that Party to the Convention six months after the date of the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval.
Article 16. Denunciations	263
1. A Party to the Convention may denounce this Convention by a formal notification in writing addressed to the depositary. The denunciation may be limited to certain territorial units of a non-unified legal system to which this Convention applies.
2. The denunciation shall take effect 12 months after	264
